a Comet's eye

In this, the 13th publication of the Granby High School yearbook, we present a Comet's eye-view of the year 1952-53. As a comet soaring across the heavens sees all that is beneath it, so the staff has roved the halls of Granby recording the happenings of the year. Each letter of the word comet has ben used to show one facet of our school life and each corresponding section of the book has been introduced by a picture of the heavens.

Through experience we have learned that publishing a yearbook is a difficult task requiring not only the best efforts of all staff members but also their close co-operation and continued good humor. It is our sincere hope that this, your yearbook, will in some way reflect the satisfaction and joy which we have found in working together to produce it. To those who, although not regular members of the staff, have pitched in or offered a helping hand and a cheerful "I'd be glad to!", go our heart-felt thanks—and, to you, our readers, we express the hope that, as you travel back through the year with the "Comet," a little of the star dust will rub off on you and help to keep your high school memories alive and sparkling!

And now . . . .

Among the brightest stars

DEDICATION

When God looked down on Granby and He saw
His carefree children, dreaming the dreams of youth,
He sent two women bearing talents
To lead them on to beauty and to wisdom.

And one He sent with ready smile and rhythmic touch
Who set their lips and hearts to singing;
Pointed out the basic harmony in all His ways,
And thus became their friend.

And the other He sent with understanding heart and searching mind
Who spurred them on the pathway to achievement and to truth,
Who was their counselor and their guide,
And thus became their friend.

Class Gift

It is the sincere wish of the class that the students and teachers find this gift useful and helpful.

Class Sponsor

MISS MARY BALASCA

Sponsor

THE COMET of 1953 salutes the guiding star of the senior class, Miss Mary Balasca. Her vivacious leadership and boundless energy have been the beacon by which the course of senior events and achievements has been set. With the spirit of true leadership she has brought out the best in those working with her by shedding the light of her good humor over all the class activities.

Miss Balasca will always hold a cherished spot in the hearts of her seniors as a wonderful friend and one of the brightest stars in the heaven of their memories.

January Honor Graduates

NANCY LEIGH JENKINS EDWIN GROVER MARIE BOGART

We wish to commend the honor students of the Class of January, 1953, for the fine citizenship and scholastic records which they have maintained throughout three years of senior high school. Not only have they kept up with their studies, but they have participated in numerous extracurricular activities as well. Their willingness to co-operate, their efforts to help, and their attitude toward life has made them a major part of Granby.

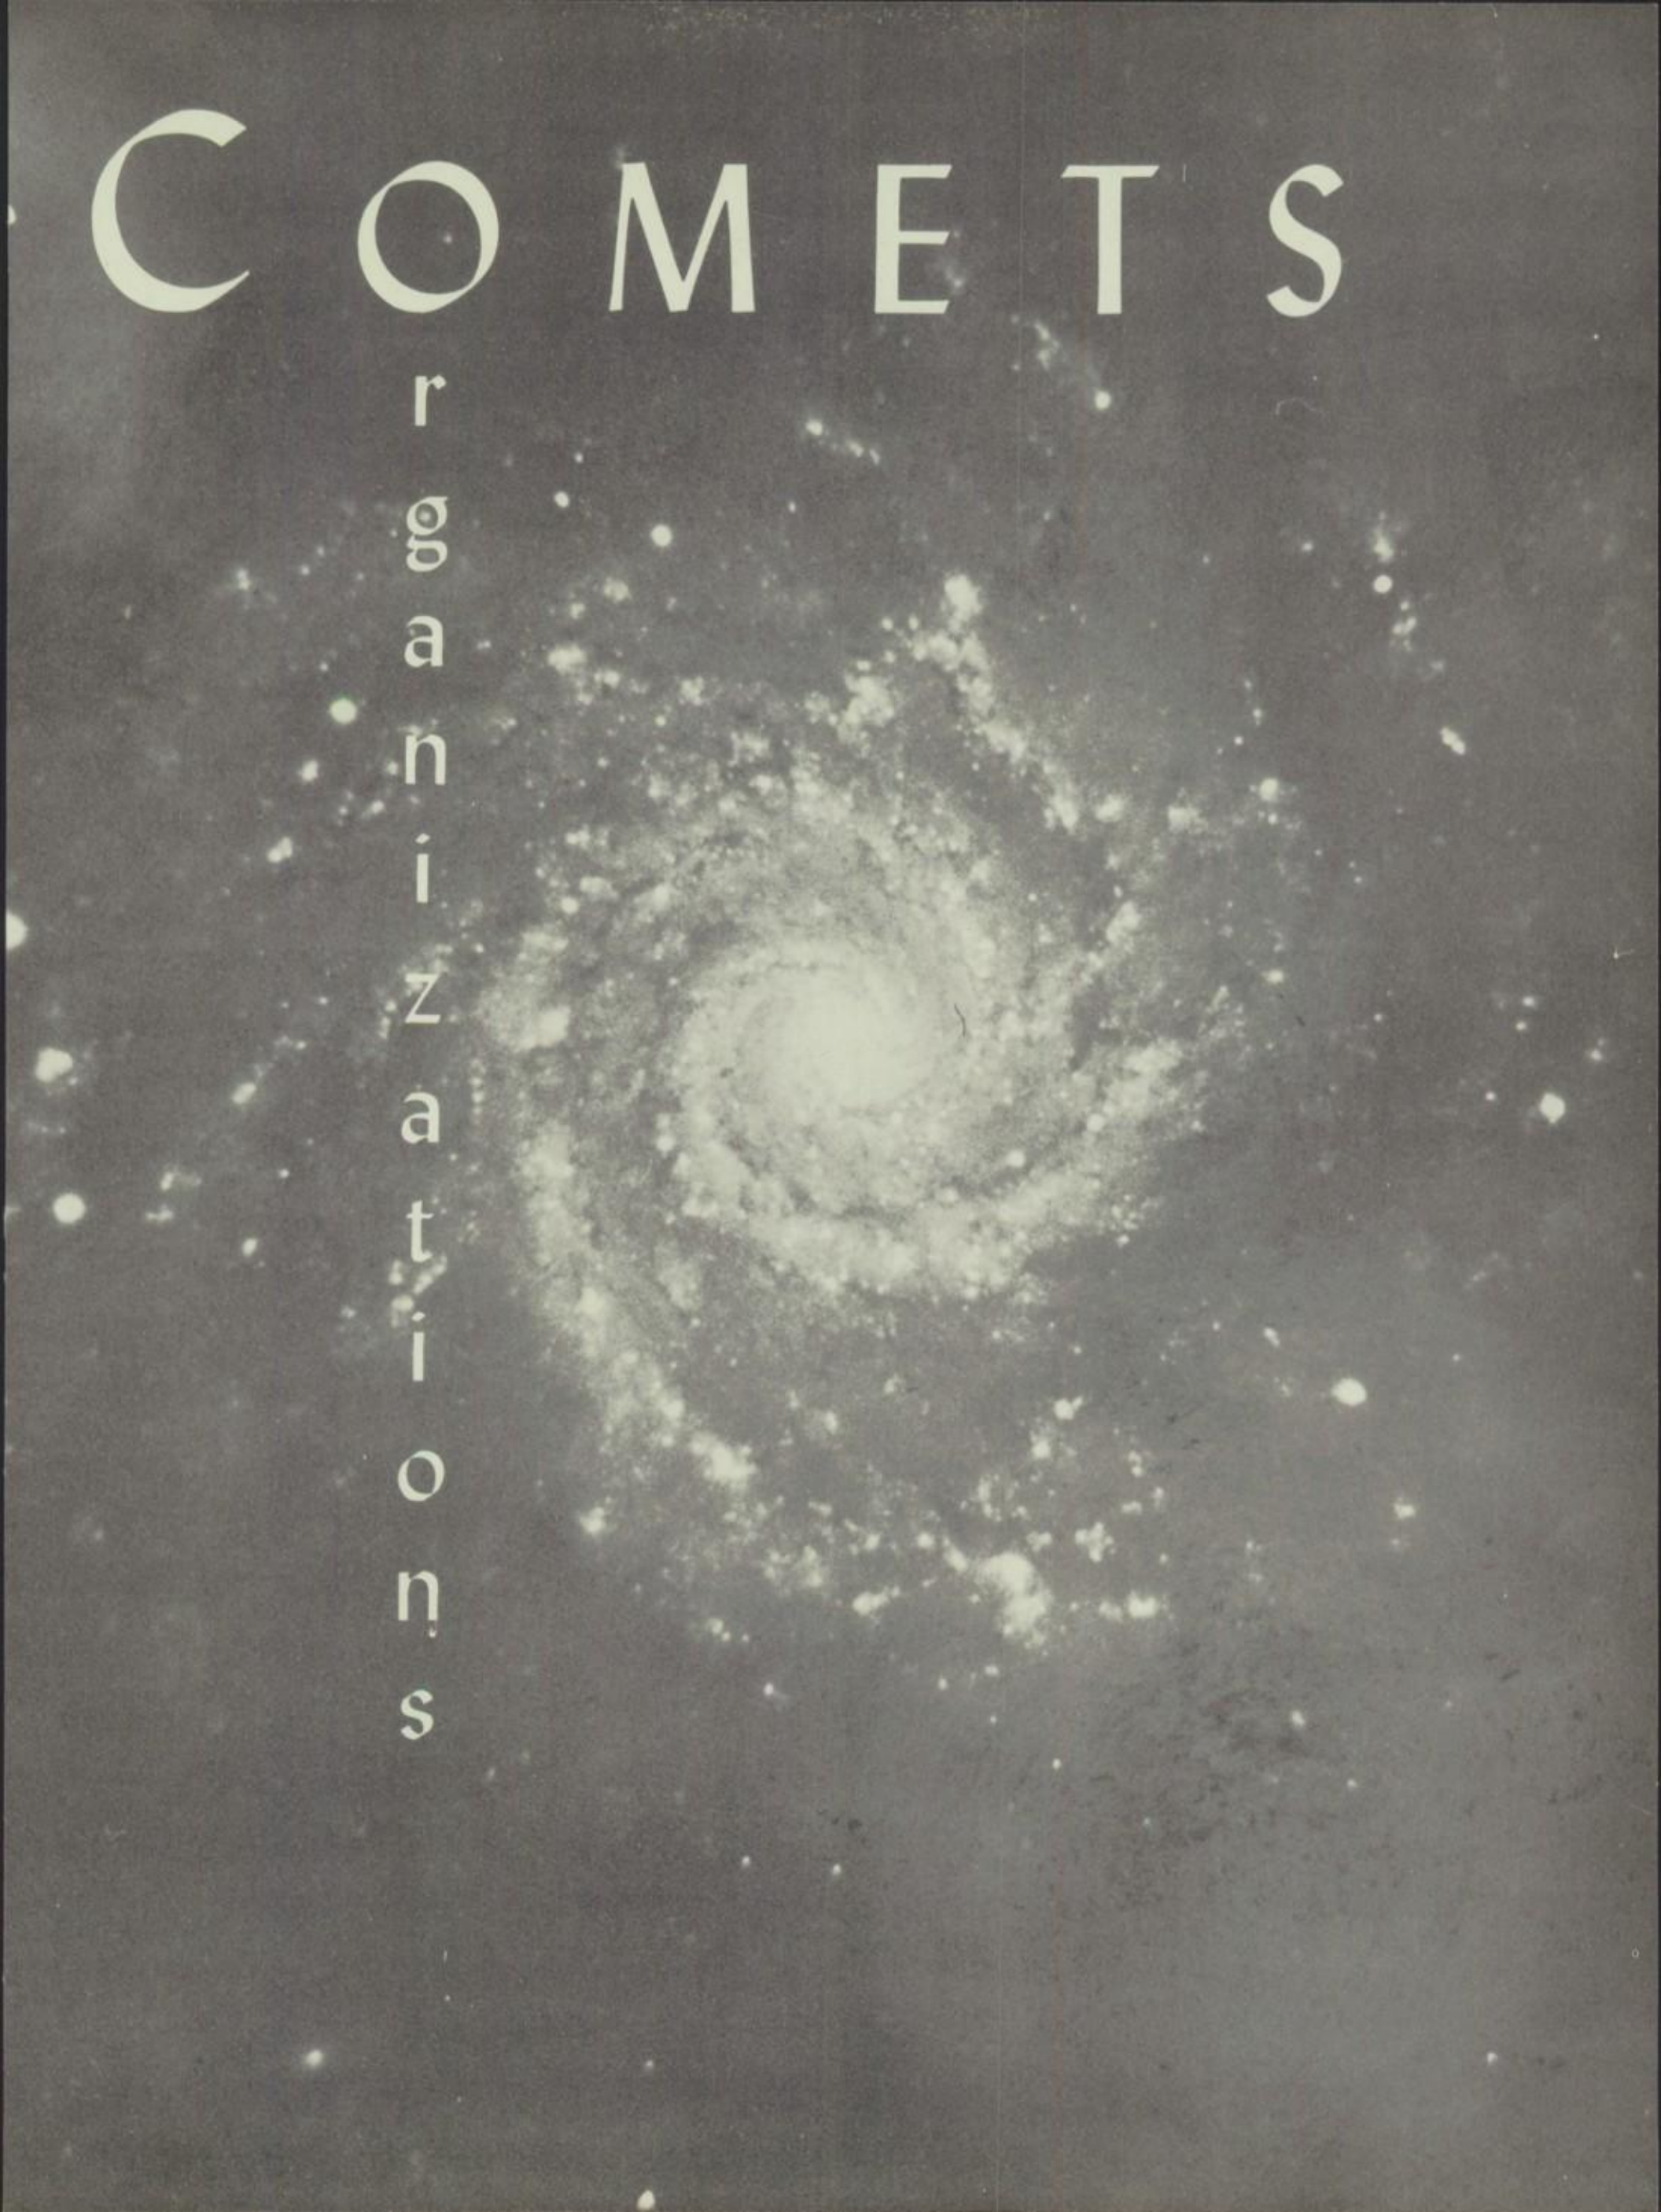
COMETS

Organizations



The Guiding Forces

The Student Senate of Granby High School is modeled after our National Senate. It consists of the Student Government, its officers, and a senator from each class. The Student Government president presides over Senate meetings.

The purpose of the Senate is to help make the life of the Granby students more enjoyable and more useful. In order to fulfill its purpose this year the Senate has worked toward the perfection of the Honor Code, acquired a juke box for school dances, held a mock national presidential election, supported a Greek orphan, and held morning devotions over the public address system.

The Granby High School House of Representatives is composed of one representative from each homeroom and it is presided over by the Student Government vice-president.

The House works with the Senate to guide the students of Granby. Its activities are the same as those of the Senate, since it is necessary for both houses to pass each motion before it may become active. The activities this year consisted of such things as the city-wide C. I. H. U. (Can I Help You?) week, Howdy Week, and renting buses for out-of-town football games. It was largely due to the hard work of the House committees that the Honor Code was established here at Granby.

of our democratic school life

The honor code was presented to the Student Body in December by the Student Government. It is a voluntary code for anyone in the tenth, eleventh, or twelfth grades desiring to pledge to it. Those who do accept it as their code of honor sign a small card for their own use upon which the following statements are printed:

I will not cheat nor condone cheating on any test, examination, or other classroom activity.
I will not molest the property or rights of others.
I will show respect to the faculty and their decisions at all times.

Also the student signs the Honor Scroll which has been placed in the center hall. There is neither a court nor a judge of any type. It is not a system!

The thought of beginning some type of honor code was expressed about two years ago. The Government members talked about the chances of its being successful and how best to execute it. Finally in October of 1952 the statements of the code and other plans were presented to the faculty for approval. Many suggestions were discussed and it was decided that student and faculty representatives should meet together a few times. This they did—helping to bring the plans to a more exacting point. In December the plans were completed. Assembly programs were held in which the Reverend Fred T. Laughon and a group of students presented a program on "Honesty" and the plans of the code to the student body. On the 19th of December 84 students pledged their word of honor at a program held after school. Since that time the number of persons accepting the code has grown.

It is the sincere wish of the Student Government that the honor code will be respected by all—both students and faculty alike, and that it may grow to include more students.

Sandra Saunders reads morning devotions over the loud speaker.

Duke Fentress encourages Jan Hodges and Tommy Fleming to make use of the juke box, bought by the Student Government.

HONOR CODE
I shall not cheat nor condone cheating on any test, examination or other classroom activity.
I shall not molest the property or rights of others.
I shall show respect for the faculty and their decisions at all times.

Behold the versatile annual staff! As accomplished at blowing bubbles as at proof-reading and as resourceful in composing singing commercials as in choosing a new cover for the COMET.

Have you ever worn out two pairs of shoes trying to sell ads? Have you tried to identify two hundred people in a snapshot, proof-read until your eyes crossed, or burned the midnight oil to beat the deadline? Well, such things occur every hour on the hour with the annual staff.

They were not always the smiling, peaceful staff you see in the picture. What happened when Pat wanted round pages with green lettering and Carolyn disagreed? That's top secret. Each staff member is an individual with opinions and tastes of his own, and if each had worked separately, the COMET would have been, indeed, a book of round pages. Only through close cooperation and respect for the other fellow's ideas, could they have produced this unified record of life at Granby.

How much do Granby students know about the controversial issues now engaging the attention of the American public? To what extent is the average student's voice expressed in the student government?

To stimulate thought and interest in school activities and on important world, national, and community questions is the aim of Granby's SPECTATOR. It attempts to stay "on the ball" as a newspaper which reflects its readers' thinking as well as making its readers think, and it endeavors to mold the students' minds and actively campaigns for the students' ideas. A good school paper must not be afraid to deal with serious topics and lofty ideals, the SPECTATOR staff believes.

Reporting and defining the news is, then, the main function of the SPECTATOR. At the same time the SPECTATOR, by employing principles of professional newspapers, teaches journalism students to write with precision and clarity and to appreciate good writing. For some this experience will be the gateway to a career in journalism.

Band

Each September the band has to battle an influx of new and inexperienced players. There is less than a month to train the group to appear at the first football performance. During football season, the band plays at home football games and marches in parades. Sometimes it is fortunate enough to be asked to play and parade at college games out of the city. In the middle of December nearly every member of the band tries out for All-State Band, which is a composite of bandsmen from south-eastern Virginia. In February the band assembles and plays under the direction of a visiting director. For five straight years Granby has led the other schools in the number that have made the band.

The band begins its concert season with the new term in January. Four selections are prepared to be played in the District Contest. The Granby Band has always gotten a first division, which is a superior rating, in this contest. In the early spring, a concert is given and several parades near the end of the year bring the band's activities to a close.

Members of the Work Crew, Jack Midgette, Leon Ewell, Jimmy Bean, Warren Richardson, and Eugene Bradshaw, load the truck with instruments.

Librarian and Co-Captain Robert McGee, filing some music.

Mr. Williams draws a crescendo from the band.

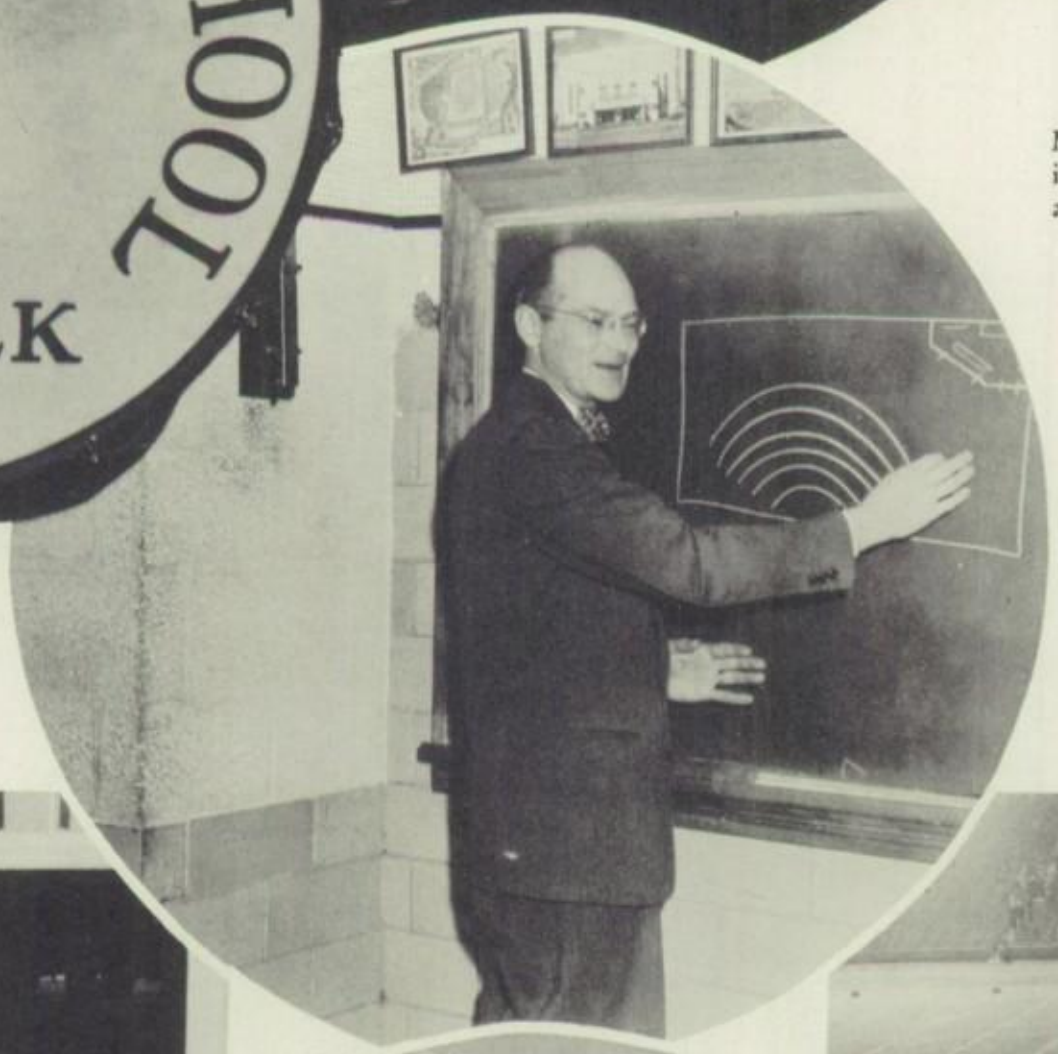
Band

These are the members of the percussion section who, when the band is on the march, must continue playing until the final whistle is blown; they are Stanley Darden, Lee Brangden, Bobby Roughton, Paul Plawin, Jerry Venn, Wayne Lewis, and Anne Perkins. Absent from picture, Margaret Eads.



Mr. Williams suspects the cameraman is near as he explains the new seating arrangement to the band.

Drill Team

In 1946 Russell Williams came to Granby and with him came many new ideas, one of which was the Granby Drill Team. His plan was to have a unit of sixty girls march with the band in half-time formations and in parades. The Drill Team at first was composed only of honor students but as time went on and more girls became interested, Mr. Williams lowered the requirements to include any girl at Granby.

This year besides marching at four football games the Drill Team was invited to Richmond to march in the Thalheimer Christmas parade and to Franklin, Virginia, to march in their home-coming celebration. Together with other Virginia and Carolina bands the Drill Team and Band participated in the annual Oyster Bowl parade and football game at Foreman Field.

Cue Club

From the shades of Shakespeare to the worries of a "Junior Miss," the Cue Club takes them all.

This group is devoted to all phases of putting on a production for the entertainment of the school and public.

The members need not have acting ability. They may go into personal and costume make-up or work in co-operation with the Art Club in building props or the Stage Crew in lighting and prompting.

The members of this club have put forth excellent performances for the last fourteen years. More especially these actors and actresses have won several first places in the state dramatic and speaking contests.

The officers are: Jimmie Lowe, president; Laura Williamson, vice-president; Bobbytte Johnson, secretary; Marian Worley, treasurer. The sponsor is Mrs. Anne Treakle.

It's plain to see what Peggy Hoyle thinks of Ed Brewton's performance.

Jimmie Lowe, Jack Dent, and Jon Howe engaged in a polite little conversation in "Junior Miss."

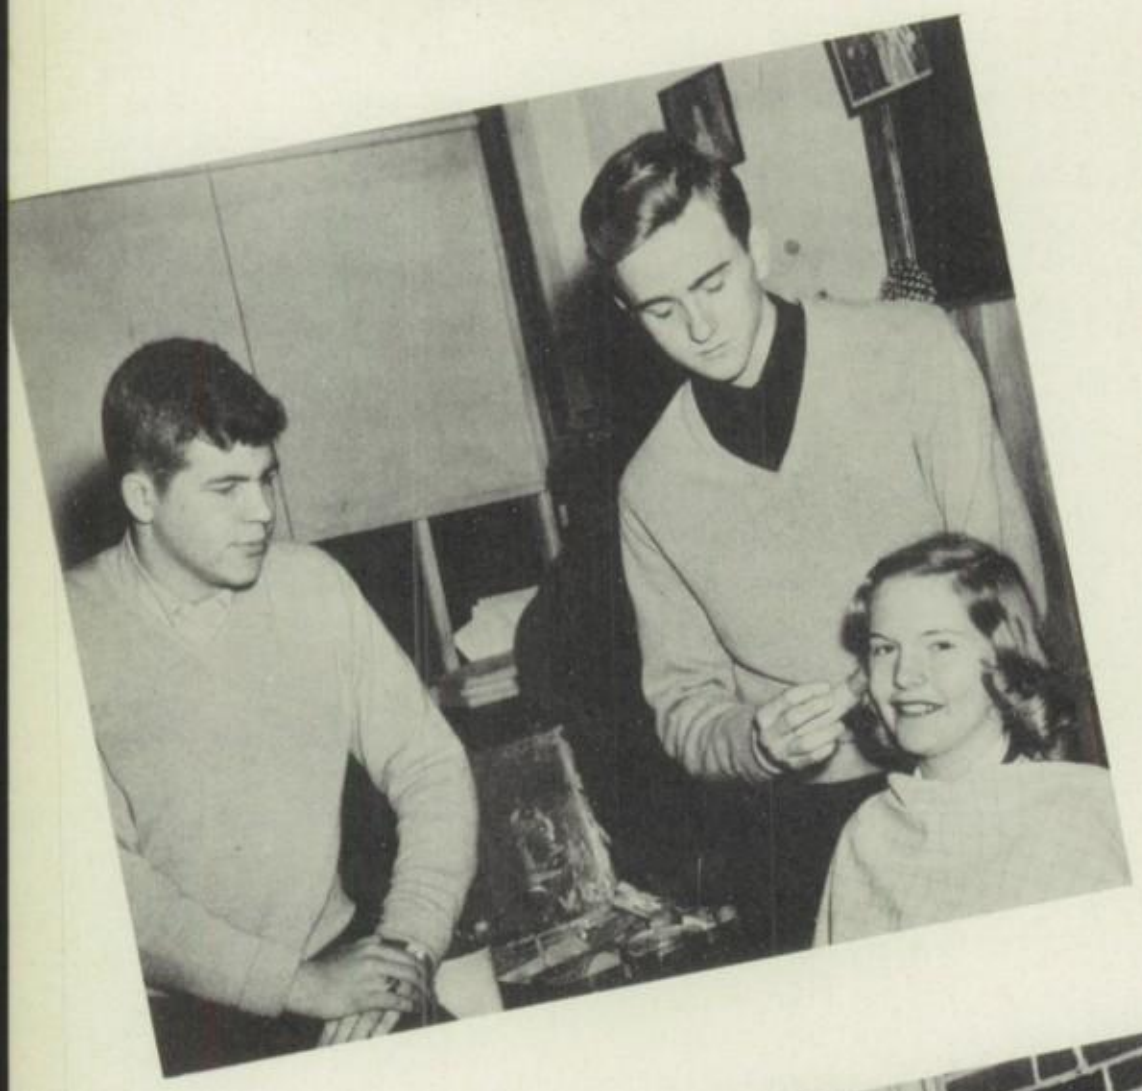
Thespians

The National Thespian Society was organized last year to promote and improve dramatics at Granby. This national society has a monthly magazine which gives the Thespians pointers on all phases of amateur dramatics.

The society here at Granby has contributed immensely in various ways to dramatics. Last year the state contest play, "The Valiant," was cast entirely of Thespians. It won the highest rating given to schools in any division.

Club members have participated in all the plays put on in the last two years here at Granby. Several of the Thespians have helped the Footlights Club and other organizations in their theatrical efforts.

To be a Thespian a student has to accumulate a certain number of points. These may be acquired by acting, assisting in make-up, and other stage work so that "the show may go on."



Jack Dent looks a bit dubious about the make-up job Jimmie Lowe gives Laura Williamson.

Footlights Club

Lights, camera, action, and the show begins! Weeks of rehearsal and preparation show their results as the Footlights Club combines its talents and carries the public into the world of magic and make-believe.

All club members are not seen as the play takes its course, but all take part in some way. Together they see that "the show goes on."

Art Club

Each year the Art Club is engaged in a number of activities. One of the most interesting is decorating a float for the Thanksgiving Game.

If you want to make your own Christmas presents, you can find a wide variety of media from which to choose and if you like to paint, you can spend your time learning more about it.

The climax of the year comes when the members give a party and exhibition near the end of the year.

Backstage Club

The Granby High School Backstage Club is a non-secret and non-social organization whose main purpose is to build character through working together to create, maintain, and extend stage work of all types. It is under the student leadership of a stage manager, and an eight-man Board of Directors. They are advised by two faculty sponsors.

They run audio-visual projects, make classroom recordings, set spotlights for dances, install public address microphones where needed, hang gym and lunch room special event decorations and move building supplies and equipment in addition to their stage activities.

Keys awarded once each year are earned by club members whose participation has averaged 85 points per week.

Creative Writing

"Read that line again!"—"How about changing the title from "Lost in Macy's" to "Oh, Where, Oh, Where, Can Mama Be?" You'll hear these and other comments as the members of the Creative Writing Guild carry out their purpose of giving those interested in creative writing a chance to present their plays, poems, or stories to the other members for helpful criticism.

Quill and Scroll

The Quill and Scroll Society is an international honorary society for high school journalists. Under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Cornelia Stahr and Miss Frances Young, the society offers to students interested in creative writing and engaged in a school publication, the opportunity to meet together and discuss problems of journalism and writing. New members are initiated in an impressive candlelight ceremony. All members are constantly striving to improve their writing by entering literary contests and submitting material to magazines.

The Little United Nations is concerned largely with the study of current world problems, particularly those of the international organization, the big United Nations. They do more than study and discuss, however. They send clothing overseas, have a Care package program, and correspond with people of other nations to do their bit in furthering better relations among the peoples of the world.

Little United Nations

Bible Club

Boys and girls of all denominations meet together every morning from about eight 'til eight-fifty. They sing the first half an hour and have Bible study, prayer, and discussion the last half an hour. All of this is led by a different student every morning with the group joining in the discussion.

They have a regular schedule worked out so that something different happens every day. Monday and Wednesday, they have prayer and Bible study; Tuesday, Mr. Flaxman, from the Tabernacle Church, comes over and talks to them about a character in the Bible; Thursday, a Bible quiz; Friday, a guest speaker.

Key Club

Using as its motto the words "We serve," the Key Club carries out various projects for the school throughout the year. Helping out on Career Day, acting as business managers for "Junior Miss," and assisting the administration were just a few of its various activities this past year.

Under the guidance of Mr. E. O. Burroughs, Kiwanis sponsor, and Arthur Barfield, faculty advisor, the Key Club works to develop leadership among its members and strives to make Granby a better school.

In previous years the Key Club has not only aided Granby but through its hard work has brought it honor.

Senior Y-Teens

The Senior Y-Teens are girls in senior high school who belong to a branch of the Y.W.C.A. They have as their purpose the building of world fellowship and the promotion of inter-racial relations.

Granby's branch, an active club, has sponsored several worthwhile projects this year. The collection of chocolate bars for Korean children was their foremost undertaking, and ranking second was the Toy Shop dance to secure toys for Norfolk's many underprivileged children.

Each year the girls send representatives to a state conference where they meet with other Y-Teens from Virginia to discuss the new ideas and common problems. The 1953 conference in February was held in Roanoke, with Granby's president, Dotty Milteer, presiding as state chairman.

The other officers are: Anne East and Jean Gillette, vice-president; Betty Carroll, secretary; Nancy Lipford, treasurer; and Anne Thomas, chaplain. Miss Helen DeLong is the sponsor.

The Junior Y-Teens have added much to Granby's drive to serve others. This year they are headed by: Frances Wentz, president; Nancy Eason, vice-president; Jodie Trammell, secretary; Pat Henry, treasurer; Bobbie Wilson, chaplain. Co-sponsors are Miss Ann Brock and Miss Louise Sitterson.

Following in the footsteps of their big sisters, the Senior Y-Teens, these girls are trying to fulfill their Y-Teen song:

"We, the younger generation,
Are trying now to build a better world."

The first movement of the Hi-Y started back in 1844, when George Williams, with eleven other young men, founded the Y.M.C.A.

Then in 1889, D. F. Shirk, a teacher, organized the first high school Y.M.C.A. Since then, many chapters have been formed; Granby's is the "George Williams Chapter of the Hi-Y."

Every member has been inducted into the Hi-Y under the purpose: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." In one word the purpose is "service."

The club certainly proved to be a service to the school when the boys filled the holes in the school driveway. They were also a service to the community by collecting baskets of food for the needy.

The Hi-Y has also sponsored dances, parties, and a pep rally.

Members of the Hi-Y engaged in an informal discussion.

Mr. Derringe takes a minute to think about his invitation from Mr. Smith and some Hi-Y boys to become the club's new sponsor.

Junior Hi-Y

The baby Hi-Y'ers haven't been too active, though they did contribute their part toward the float parade at the Thanksgiving game.

Last year, under the burden of a great demand for a club for the boys in Junior High, some students got together and with the permission of the Hi-Y they drew up a charter for a junior chapter.

They meet each week at the Royster Memorial Presbyterian Church.

This club may well be one of Granby's most important—for it helps mold religious character, and good citizenship.

Junior Hi-Y members are not guaranteed membership in the Hi-Y, but they are automatically put on the slate of nominations for Hi-Y membership.

Le Cercle Francais

"Aimons-nous La France?" "Mais oui!"

All this may sound strange and unfamiliar but not if you're a member of Le Cercle Francais. By conducting their meetings in French, the members who have studied the language for one year or more put what they have learned into practical use by playing games, conversing in French, and giving skits and talks about the people and the country.

The annual Christmas tea with its impressive candle lighting ceremony and caroling, as well as the support of L'Ecole de Filles de la Madeleine, has shown the members' interest in France's way of life and their love of her people.

Les Cadets

Les Cadets are the "younger brothers" of Le Cercle Francais. They take an active part in most of the undertakings that their "older brothers" do. Each year they have a small but attractive float in the annual Granby-Maury football game. For two years when the combined French clubs had the Kermesse, Les Cadets contributed their services by making articles to be sold, managing booths, and doing all they could to make it a success. The meetings are carried on in French as far as possible and after the business is finished they square dance and play games—en Francais—of course!

Pan American League

"Only one wife!" missionary Joe Parrish informs pagan Andy Johnson.

Getting better acquainted with "our good neighbors to the South" is the purpose of the Pan American League. The meetings feature humorous skits, songs, movies, and reports on Latin-American current events and customs. Highlights of the year are the breaking of the pinata at the annual Christmas fiesta and the Pan American Day banquet in April.

For a comparatively new club at Granby, the Garden Club has gained an important position in school activities. Their Christmas flower show and exhibits have become a yearly event enjoyed by all. The doorway decorations at Christmas, sponsored by the club, provide fun and a spirit of competition to each homeroom that tries to have the most attractive door.

Future Teachers

The Future Teachers' Club is celebrating its second year at Granby under the sponsorship of Miss Dorothy Martin. Club members have a special advantage because of the nearness of Granby Elementary. Their visits to the different classes have proved both profitable and interesting because of the advantage of seeing a teacher at work with the pupils themselves. They feel that it is a distinct honor to be a part of this club because future teachers are the ones who will shape the minds of the coming generations.

Future Nurses

Being a member of the Future Nurses Club affords an opportunity to become better acquainted with the ideals, rewards, and responsibilities of caring for the sick.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Norfolk County Medical Society, sponsor, has been most generous toward the club with financial aid and transportation on various trips.

The Future Nurses Club was organized at Granby by Mrs. Saunders who has helped to plan interesting projects and trips to such places as Eastern State Sanitarium in Williamsburg, the American Blood Bank, and various other hospitals throughout the state. Mrs. Saunders is assisted by Miss Audrey Jones of DePaul Hospital.

Future Business Leaders

Thinking about storming the country with your brainy business deals? You couldn't find a better place to expound your theories than in the Granby Chapter of the Future Business Leaders of America.

Its purpose is to prepare young people to assume their positions as leaders in the business world of tomorrow.

This year the club put out the State F. B. L. A. bulletin; in addition to various projects inside the school, members make field trips to business offices and different industries.

This past year at Christmas time members donated food for a needy Norfolk family.

Distributor's Club

The Distributor's Club is an integral part of the Distributive Education program. Its purpose is to provide club members with a means of learning the vocational opportunities in the field of distribution and their significance to community life. Through local meetings, area conventions, and an annual State Convention of the Distributive Education Clubs of America, students develop the ability to work in groups as well as participate in many social events and community projects. All of their activities are carried out in order to train tomorrow's leaders in the business world, and to develop students into intelligent consumers.

Science Club

At club meetings you will see the members of the Science Club experimenting, making projects, and planning for various science contests. This year the Science Club has started a system whereby the members may consult their teachers on their projects. Among the club's plans are the field trips and a Science Fair.

"What can we do for others?" This challenge urges on the Granby Junior Red Cross Representatives. Each year they head the school's Red Cross campaign, pack boxes to send overseas, collect clothes and food for the needy, and aid in the city-wide blood program. Through this club many of us "Answer the call and give."

With a peppy "hep-hep" you'll find these girls yelling for dear ole G. H. S. Many hours of practice are spent in preparation for the support they lend the teams during football and basketball season. Unlike the past years at Granby, the Captainship has rotated for each game. This has encouraged the individual cheerleader as well as produced more harmony and good-will within the group. The two sponsors who have given so willingly of their time are Miss Mary Gregory and Miss Mary Balasca.

G-R, G-R, G-R-A-N. These are the cries that can be heard from our Junior Varsity Cheerleaders. This is a comparatively new group, organized two years ago to cheer and help stimulate the interest of Granby students in Junior Varsity sports. They practice hard and are really doing a swell job. Good luck, girls, and keep up the good work.

Monogram Club

It's true, that Granby was hit by a herd of gray monsters last fall! The halls were flooded with them, but they turned out to be the Granby boys in Monogram Club jackets. The club put on one of the most spectacular events of the year when they staged the football homecoming game, honoring the Granby letter winners of the past. This year's "Turkey Hop," a traditional Monogram Club stand-by, was a great success. The Scholarship Fund is one of the club's most important projects. Enough money is loaned to some Granby boy to start him in college. He pays back when he can. Such recreational and educational activity makes this one of Granby's most highly regarded clubs.

Thanksgiving Day

Turkey and dressing! Pumpkin pudding! Grandmother's mincemeat pie! Do these mean Thanksgiving to you? To students at Granby and Maury, Thanksgiving is all that and much more, too. It is the friendly rivalry in football that has been an annual event for many years and the pageantry which accompanies that rivalry—the parade of student floats, the selection of two outstanding students to represent Maury and Granby as Mr. Commodore and Miss Comet, the enthusiastic cheerleaders and the gaily decorated goal posts, and the sportsmanship displayed in the annual football game which is played in the spirit of true but friendly competition. Doesn't this sound like fun? It is! So—o—o— grab your cowbell and come join the fun—it's a tradition!

COMETS

Sports

Gladiators fight under blue skies

Charlie Goodwyn
Captain

The Comets started the season off by tying Suffolk, but they lost to John Marshall the following week. Then after winning two games, they came up against the powerful Blue Devils of Hopewell. This was the Homecoming for the Comets, honoring the monogram winners of Granby in the past. The old grads were thrilled throughout the entire game as Granby handed Hopewell its first defeat in thirty-five starts. But alas, disaster struck as the Norview Pilots defeated the boys in blue, and shattered every thought of a State Championship. The next week Granby seemed to be on the comeback trail as they whipped Warwick. This victory was to be their last, however, for after losing to Newport News and Wilson, the Comets dropped the city classic to Maury by the same score by which they won the year before.

First row, left to right: John Anderson, manager; Kenny Etheridge, Jack Sandler, Billie Taylor, Sherman Vandevender, Joe Leafe, Fred Clark, Bernie Hutchison, Buddy Smith, Frank Buck, David Mosel, Bobby Eldridge, Gordon Potter, manager. Second row: John Biggs, Don Desselle, Billy Jackson, Charles Lastinger, Fred Gray, Tommy Commander, Russell Gray, George Bell, Johnny Slayton, Walter Bain, Jimmy Thomas, Bill Cox. Third row: Charles Goodwyn, Billy Tilling, Doug Harlass, Vincent Mollura, Bob Swindell, Kelly Clements, Charles Bayne, Jerry South, Pouchie Brown, Gerald Enos, Jack Woodhouse, Mickie Simpson.

Granby co-captains. Gerald Enos and Charlie Goodwyn. and Maury co-captains. John Clark and Chester Merritt. receive pre-game instruction from the referee.

Junior Varsity Football

"Experience is the best teacher." If you don't believe that, just ask the J.V.'s: Granby's football heroes in the making! These junior Comets, like "juniors" everywhere, may be forced to take the "backseat" while big brothers show them how "it's" done but, never fear, these stars of the future are taking note of all they see for the time when they'll be at the wheel. Coached by Mr. Dixie Moore, the J.V.'s demonstrated good sportsmanship and a will to win through a hard season in which they tied two games and lost two. Some especially bright, rising stars observed from the stands and marked for future fame were fullback Alton McGhee, quarterback Tommy Taliaferro on the offense and Jimmy Daugherty with Moe Johnson holding down the defense. Next year's varsity squad should prove the point that Mr. Moore's loss will be Mr. Derringe's gain and Granby's continued football success.

They're as fast as a comet!

The Blue Comet cagers started off the season at the city auditorium with the traditional alumni game. The Varsity lost that one, but went on to win six straight games and take the Eastern District lead. Then their lead fell off when the next two games were lost to Wilson and Newport News. But next was a win over Maury that put them back into the limelight and in the lead for the city's high school championship.

The Comets had a full schedule of twenty games over a period of two months, not including the Eastern District Championship play-off.

The general conception of a basketball player is a tall, slim boy with extra large hands, such as Claiborne Coupland, Ed Cooke, and Don Phares; the main body, however, consists of boys who do not exceed six feet in height.

Some of the sparks of the team are Bill Tilling, Claiborne Coupland, Don Phares, Louis King, Roy Theison, and Archie Green, whose speed, skill, and stamina pull Granby through to win most of their games.

Mr. Griffin, who worked hard on endless practices the whole season, was rewarded with wins over some of the state's best teams.

COACH DONALD GRIFFIN

CLAIBORNE COUPLAND
High Scorer

Junior Varsity Basketball

Claiborne Coupland shoots a high one to the dismay of Norview players.

The junior varsity, coached by Mr. Paul Smith, had a gratifying season. Except for the alumni game in which the junior varsity didn't participate, its records were about the same as that of the Varsity.

The baby Comets, led by Shepard, Levy, Downs, Eckert, and Hines, romped over some of their opponents while just squeezing by others. There appears to be substantial evidence that Mr. Griffin will have good material ready for the varsity next year.

These boys don't become good just by accident. There's another reason behind their being good players. Early in the morning Mr. Smith has the boys practicing set-shots, free-throws, and defensive plays until they can do them well. Practice has as much to do with making a team good as do good individual players.

A point to note is that the junior varsity which plays in the preliminary games, helps to boost the morale of the Varsity players — especially when the J.V.'s win over their opponents. So junior varsity games do more than just give the boys experience for the ensuing years.

Mr. Smith has been the junior varsity coach for many seasons and he has contributed much to Granby's basketball victories.

Coupland (24) and Tilling (10) line up while Granby shoots.

Eggleston (13) balances as neatly as a ballet dancer.

FIFTEEN YEARS OF CRAFTSMANSHIP

As Campus observes its fifteenth birthday, it can look back on 80 million yearbook pages, 2000 fine editions and, above all, a record of service that will be maintained in the years to come. A pioneer in providing all inclusive yearbook service in offset, letterpress or combinations of the two. Campus has many would-be imitators—a tribute to Campus effectiveness.

Comet Grapplers Remain Unbeaten for 4th Straight Year

Granby's winning streak was threatened only once this year. The Navy Plebes tied the Comets until the last bout, when Charlie Goodwyn saved Granby from a defeat.

The Martin boys won both the State High School and State A. A. U. for the fifth straight year. Six Comets won both titles: Piercey, Carson, Taylor, Vandevender, Swindell, and Harless.

The Norfolk Sports Club sent four boys to the National A. A. U.; Carson, Taylor, Vandevender, and an ex-Granby star, Eddie Eichelberger.

Every boy contributed toward the team's success in placing fourth in the nation, being topped only by collegiate teams.

Coach Martin has already started practicing with the boys for next year.

Gilbert Burroughs shows excellent form in a full twist.

Though the Comet mermen began their 1953 season with only one returning letterman, Captain Dickie Davis, they finished the slate with six wins to only two defeats. Among their victories the Comets added the Southern Interscholastic Championship, in which they overcame the best swimmers of six states throughout the South. This squad, one of the best in Granby's five year swimming history was led by such outstanding swimmers as Davis in the 50-yard and 100-yard dashes, breaststroker, Tommy Plymale, backstroker, Charles Daughtry, Dallas Boggs who swam the 200-yard free style and individual medley, and Gilbert Burroughs who led the diving slate. Aside from these men six others won their letters, five of whom will return to pace Granby on to an even better year in '54.

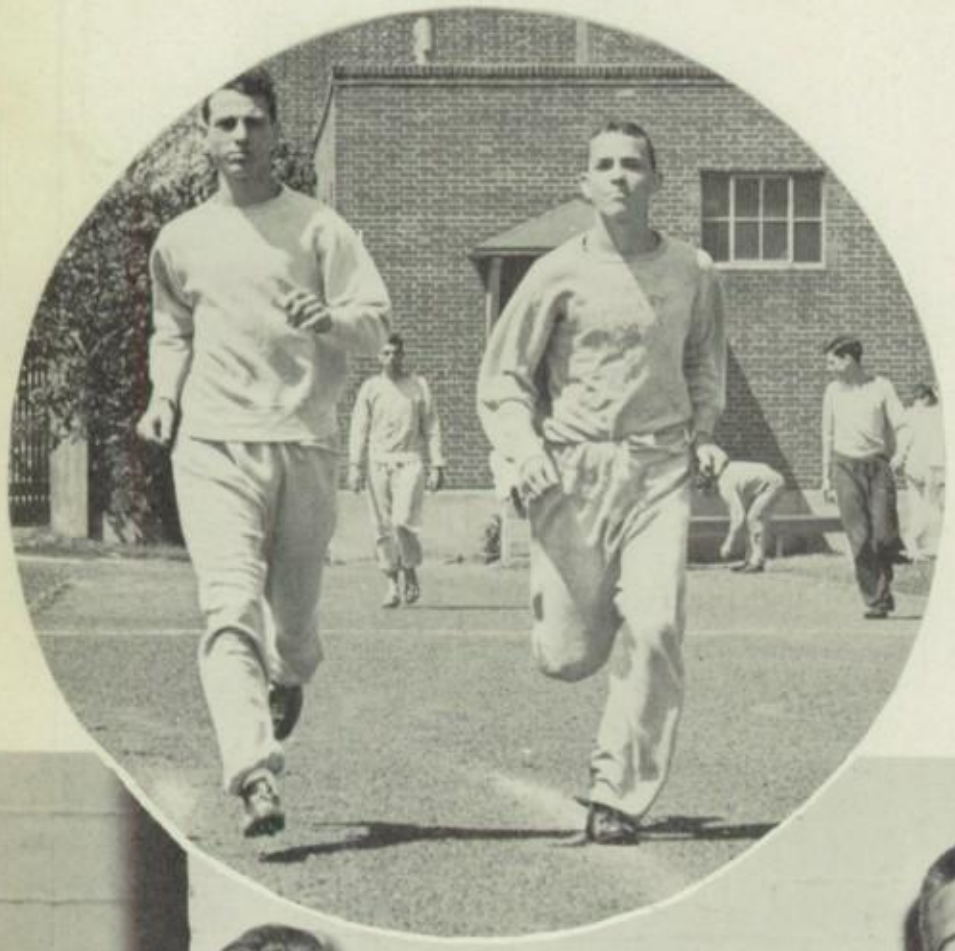
Indoor Track

Coach John Brown decided that this year he would have both a varsity and a junior varsity indoor track team. They had only one meet apiece. The varsity lost to Woodberry Forest, while the junior varsity won. Don Fite sparked the J. V., while Mickie Simpson and Bobby Rutherford starred for the varsity.

In outdoor track the weights took command. Eddie Cooke, Granby's competent shot and discus man, was voted Norfolk's Most Outstanding Track Star. Besides Cooke, there were Jimmy Thomas at the hurdles, Mickie Simpson in the sprints, and Jimmy Hall on the distances.

The Comet cindermen faired rather well considering their tough competition in the Eastern District this season.

Coach Brown is working with the boys now to help make next year's team take the State Crown.



Jimmy Hall and Fred Amos are snapped warming up for the mile.

Tennis

This year's tennis team earned a 5-1 league and edged Maury for the Eastern District Championship. Led by seniors Jon Howe, Claiborne Coupland, and Archie Green, Granby rebounded after an opening loss to Maury and defeated league foes, Norview and Warwick twice, and Cradock once. Matches were also played with Suffolk, Norfolk Academy, and the University of North Carolina J. V.'s at Chapel Hill.

Green, playing the number four position, had the best singles record, winning seven and losing one against high school foes. Howe and Howard, the number one doubles team, had an equally fine record. The number one and two singles players, Howe and Coupland, collected six victories each. Howe, who held the number one position for two years, represented Granby in the State Scholastic Tournament in Charlottesville.

Billy Wood, Dicky Davis, and Gilbert Burroughs rounded out the squad. Juniors Howard, Wood, and Burroughs will return next year to bolster Coach Griffin's tennis forces.

Baseball

Reserve Commander Dixie Moore and his Granby nine charted a tough course this year. Swamped with the waves of on-rushing teams, they chugged through the season with only two wins to their credit. The Comets won the opener against Norview, 10-8. Then they lost to Maury. Their next win came one game later after a 33-3 drubbing by Cradock. The Comets then beat South Norfolk, 6-4.

The two hurlers on the mound were Joe Leafe and Don Coureas, with Billy Tilling doing the receiving behind the plate. The team's hitting power came from such veteran sluggers as Billy Tilling, Ken Etheridge, and Bernie Hutchison.

Most of the Comet base runners will return next year and with all their experience will have an advantage from the start. So play ball, you Comets, and good luck and lots of success through the coming years.

Tilling puts his wrist into a lusty swing.

Coach Dixie Moore

Taliaferro scores a run in an inter-squad game.

Golf

Mr. Casey has had plenty of experience at coaching driving, but he readily admits that he would much rather coach the kind that's taught on the golf course. He masterfully coached the Comet club swingers through another successful golfing season, with their only flaws being losses to Wilson and Woodberry Forest.

Yell Fore! for these four: Carter Smith, last year's State Champion and No. 1 man on the team; Billy Robbins, who placed second in this year's State Tournament and No. 2 man on the team; Lee Brown, and Bill Dudley, who make up the rest of the team.

Granby could only send two boys to the State Tournament because they didn't win in the District. The District team champion is decided by a percentage of wins during the regular season. Granby's Billy Robbins placed second by one stroke behind the winner of the individual honors.

Last year's vets: Lee Brown, Sam Poore, and Carter Smith.
